New Hope Counseling Services, 15063 Clayton Rd, Chesterfield, MO

Some themes covered in this group are:

- Grieving the hurt of betrayal and loss of trust
- Growing in the knowledge & truth of our beauty as women
- Understanding the fear & shame that gets triggered
- Finding hope & healing in Christ's love for us

If you would like more information about Rescuing Hope, please contact Patti Hawley at 636-779-0325.

New Hope Youth & Scholarship FUND

Each year children, adolescents, and families come to New Hope Counseling Services who are not able to afford the full cost. Last year over $86,000 was given in scholarships to these clients. The money that is donated allows families to get counseling as they deal with issues like divorce, sexual abuse, domestic violence, eating disorders and thoughts of suicide.

If you are interested in giving a donation, make checks payable to New Hope Counseling and mail to the following: New Hope Counseling, Attn: Y&FS Fund, 15063 Clayton Road, Chesterfield, MO 63017. All gifts and donations are tax deductible.

Some of the themes covered in this group are:

- Healthy spirituality
- True masculinity
- Dealing with betrayal
- Family of origin
- The power of shame

If you would like more information, please contact Jack Easterling or Luke Calvin at 636-394-7015.
